WELCOME TO TEXAS A&M UNIVERSITY

As guests, staying in the residence halls, it is important that you be aware of some of the residence hall rules. Violation of any of the Residence Hall or University rules, by guests, could result in immediate removal.

ACCESS CARDS/ROOM KEYS
Residence hall guests will not be issued building access cards or room keys. Hosts should not loan, or allow guests to use of their student I.D.s/residence hall access cards or room keys. Room doors should not be left unlocked.

ALCOHOL
Alcohol is not permitted in rooms with occupants under the age of 21 years. Guests found in violation of alcohol policies will be asked to leave the building immediately.

COOPERATION WITH A UNIVERSITY OFFICIAL
Residence hall staff (Resident Advisors and Hall Directors) are University Officials. Guests who refuse to cooperate with University Officials may be removed from the residence halls immediately.

DAMAGES
Guests are the responsibility of the hosts and the sponsoring organization, and hosts will be held accountable for any damages caused by guests.

DRUGS
Any guest found in possession of drugs or drug paraphernalia will be turned over to University Police and removed from the residence hall immediately.

EMERGENCYALARMS
Should the Emergency Building Alarms in the hallways sound, do not hesitate to leave your room and evacuate the building at the nearest safe exit immediately. Should you detect smoke or fire, alarm pull stations are located near each stairwell. Tampering with fire alarm systems will result in prosecution.

ESCORT POLICY
Guests must be escorted and accompanied by their hosts, at all times, while in the residence halls. Guests are not permitted to roam the hallways, without the host escorts. Guests are not to be left in rooms, without the hosts being present. To enter or exit the building, the hosts must escort guests to and from the room and building entrance doors. Guests arriving at a residence hall without the escort, must call the host(s) for an escort, using the courtesy phone located outside entrance doors.

ENTRANCE DOORS
All entrance doors to the residence halls are locked 24 hours a day. Propping doors open is prohibited and will set off a door alarm. Guests will be required to contact hosts for escort into the residence halls using the courtesy phones.

NOISE
As consideration to all residence hall occupants, keep noise to a minimum. Quiet Hours are from 8:00 p.m. to 7:00 a.m., Sunday – Thursday. 24-Hour Consideration Hours are in affect at all times of the day and weekends.

SMOKING
Smoking is NOT permitted inside any building on the A&M campus, including residence hall rooms, hallways, and lounges.

WINDOWS
Windows may only be opened in corridor and balcony style residence halls, from 7:00 a.m. to 7:00 p.m. Opening windows in all other styles of residence halls is prohibited.
